

Oilers Defeat Bay City Handy

After two consecutive years of disappointing Homecoming losses, Mt. Pleasant drilled Bay City Handy for a convincing 27-0 win.

Junior quarterback Kyle Kennett led the Oilers by rushing for two touchdowns and passing for another. The inspired Oilers score on their first possession, covering 28 yards in only two plays for their first strike. This drive was capped by a twelve yard scramble into the end zone by senior fullback Matt Brockman.

Senior tailback John Meier was the games leading rusher with 96 yards on only twelve carries. Brockman had 32 yards for the night and Kennett ended with 63. Junior Brian Warner played the fourth quarter and rushed for 49 yards.

Not only were the Oilers successful on the ground, but senior Mike Monahan caught all three of Kennett's completions for 66 yards.

There was a capacity crowd on hand for the Homecoming game, and they were anticipating a big win. Mt. Pleasant did not disappoint them with their thrilling victory.

The Oiler Booster Rooster cheers for the team Mt. Pleasant drilled Bay City Handy for a 27-0 win at the Homecoming Game.
