

A Parade of Songs

Starting at Fancher School, this year's Homecoming parade wound its way through downtown, executing some tricky turns in the new Town Center, and ended at the high school. Included in the parade were the MPHS administrators, the mayor, floats, coaches, the Queen's Court, pep-trucks, the Marching Oilers, and the cheerleaders.
