A friendly Martin Kindig waves as he does his recycling job this is Martin's second year at the high school. You can usually catch him singing one of his favorite songs in the hallways while walking to and from class.

Gene Sniff works on recycling and is a great leader and role model for his class. A lot of the kids look up to him and depend on his leadership.

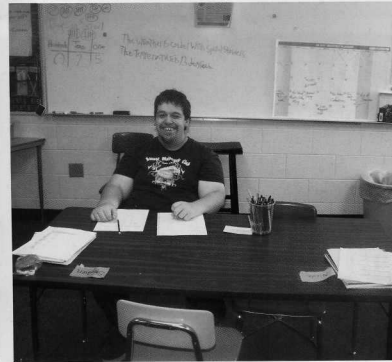

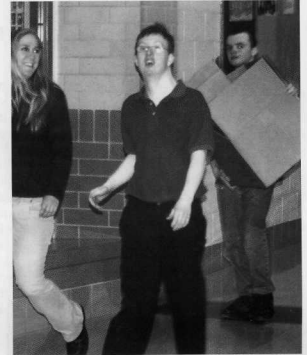

Student Derek VanHorn smiles big while carrying a box during his weekly recycling job. When asked about recycling he had this to say, "It's a lot of fun and it's good for the earth"

Student Blake Long knows what it's like to work. Blake has two jobs in the high school, one is recycling and the other is doing dishes in the lunch room.

Caleb Ross is a very friendly person. Caleb always enjoys giving "high fives" in the hall way. He usually has a smile on his face and he "loves the high school"

When asked about the class Stephen Griffin had this to say "The class is fun, it's great we have a lot of responsibilities with all of the recycling."

Student Matt Reynolds says "I am happy" a very powerful statement from a student who loves school.
